

Elderly Assist Ltd Moving Assist Ltd

Staying in your own home is not as difficult as you may have thought with the guidance of Elderly Assist.

For many years now we have helped countless clients declutter, downsize and move home.

However, some of our prospective clients are not ready to move just yet. The challenge for them now is to adapt their current home to make it safe and easy to keep living in going forward.

If this sounds like you, we at Elderly Assist have partnered with other organisations to assist you to live safely in your own home until it is the right time to move.

With Elderly Assist's years of experience and organizational skills at your side, we can help re-plan your home to support you in the future.
